

National Interstate Insurance Receives Top Workplace Recognition for the 9th Year in a Row

National Interstate Insurance Company is proud to be named the #1 Top Workplace in the Large Company Category for 2024, by Cleveland.com and The Plain Dealer. For the ninth consecutive year, National Interstate Insurance received recognition as a Top Workplace. We also earned a Specialty Award for Work/Life Balance, highlighting our dedication to our employees' health and well-being.

"Our people and their commitment to each other, as well as our customers, make National Interstate a great place to work. The insurance business is driven by relationships, and we understand that across our entire organization. We win together, we learn together, and we grow together."

-Shawn Los, Chief Operating Officer & President

Read the full article here!

Awards are based solely on employee feedback captured by a third-party survey administered by Energage LLC (<https://www.energage.com/>). The survey collects employee responses to 15 culture drivers that are vital to an organization's success.

National Interstate Insurance celebrates events, but its people matter most: Top Workplaces 2024 - cleveland.com