Businesses operating in Hawaii and Alaska face unique logistical, environmental, and geographic challenges. From interâ€‘island transportation to remote delivery routes, success depends on commercial insurance coverage designed for these demanding conditions.

Since 1995, our Oahu-based National Interstate Office has supported businesses across Hawaii and Alaska. Our regional experience and community presence allow us to deliver general commercial and transportation insurance solutions tailored to local risks.

Local Expertise Backed by National Strength

Insurance needs in Hawaii and Alaska extend beyond standard coverage. Weather variability, remote job sites, specialized transportation routes, and diverse industries require customized protection supported by experienced professionals.

National Interstate delivers:

- A limited agency distribution model connecting you with industry-focused specialists.
- Dedicated underwriting, claims, and loss control teams focused on risk prevention and improved outcomes.
- National Interstate is a proud member of Great American Insurance Group.

This combination of local insight and national resources helps businesses remain resilient when unexpected challenges arise.

Transportation Insurance Solutions Built for Island and Remote Operations

We offer commercial transportation insurance designed to support a wide range of truck and passenger operations throughout Hawaii and Alaska, including:

- School Buses
- Livery and Charter Operations
- Various Trucking Operations
- Towing Operations
- Courier Services
- Tour and Transit Operations

Our commercial transportation insurance solutions help protect drivers, maintain fleet reliability, and support dayâ€‘toâ€‘day operations. We also offer industryâ€‘specific group rental captives, enabling eligible businesses to share risk, stabilize premiums, and invest in longâ€‘term performance.

Flexible General Commercial Insurance Coverage

In addition to commercial transportation insurance, National Interstate provides general commercial insurance solutions for small and midâ€‘sized businesses across Hawaii and Alaska. Coverage is designed to adapt to operations ranging from singleâ€‘location businesses to organizations with multiple sites across islands or remote regions.

Our goal is simple: to deliver the right protection to support longâ€‘term stability and growth in complex operating environments.

A Trusted Insurance Company in Hawaii and Alaska

With over 30 years of experience serving Hawaii and Alaska, National Interstate is a trusted insurance company offering dependable general commercial and transportation coverage. We understand regional culture, recognize territory-specific operational challenges, and remain committed to providing highâ€‘quality insurance solutions backed by national expertise.