National Interstate and Vanliner Win 2026 Top Workplace USA Award

National Interstate Insurance Company, along with its wholly owned subsidiary Vanliner Insurance Company, is proud to share that it has been named a 2026 Top Workplaces USA award recipient for the second year in a row. This recognition reflects the company's continued commitment to fostering a strong, people-first culture driven by employee feedback.

National Interstate has also continued its long-standing success locally, earning recognition in the Plain Dealer and Cleveland.com 2025 Top Workplaces Northeast Ohio competition. The company has now achieved Top Workplaces honors in Northeast Ohio for 10 consecutive years, underscoring its sustained focus on employee engagement and workplace excellence.

Founded in 1989, National Interstate is a leading specialty property and casualty insurance company primarily serving the commercial transportation industry and employs more than 800 insurance professionals nationwide. Top Workplaces USA celebrates organizations with 150 or more employees that have built exceptional workplace cultures. Winners are determined solely through employee feedback captured in an employee engagement survey administered by Energage.

"To once again be recognized locally and nationally as a top workplace is a remarkable honor," said Shawn Los, President and Chief Operating Officer, National Interstate. "Our culture and amazing employees are our top assets and make NATL a great place to work. Our passionate team helps our customers, community, and company thrive, and I am grateful to be a part of it."

National Interstate remains focused on building a workplace where employees feel valued, supported, and empowered to succeed, reinforcing its commitment to long-term growth and excellence in the years ahead.
